CEF® of Greater Richmond, Virginia Partnering With Your Church

Child Evangelism Fellowship® of Greater Richmond

Never before in the history of America have we witnessed such a cultural assault on our children. Our children live in a culture of chaos. Our spiritual foundations are crumbling. And since a child's moral compass is usually set in place by age nine, we are not looking at a bright future for our country.

The future of any society can be predicted by one factor: how it raises its young. Child Evangelism Fellowship of Greater Richmond can help your CHURCH take deliberate steps to correct the cultural assault on our children right here in our own state.

May God bless you with wisdom as you consider allowing CEF of Greater Richmond to come along side your Church to evangelize the unsaved children in a nearby elementary school.

The Purpose of CEF®:

Child Evangelism Fellowship® is a Bible-centered organization composed of born-again believers whose purpose is to evangelize boys and girls with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to establish (disciple) them in the Word of God and in a local church for Christian living.

CEF
CHILD EVANGELISM
FELLOWSHIP®
Reaching children worldwide™

✦ Who is Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF)?

CEF is a Bible-centered, worldwide fellowship of born-again believers. Founded in 1937 by the Rev. Jesse Irvin Overholtzer, CEF is headquartered in Warrenton, Missouri, and is the largest evangelistic outreach to children in the world. CEF has a presence in all 50 states and most countries of the world. Hundreds of thousands of volunteers work side-by-side with CEF to share the Gospel with children around the globe. CEF Press® publishes materials in more than 100 languages.

✦ Who is CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia (GRVa)?

The GRVa Chapter of Child Evangelism Fellowship ministers to unchurched and churching children in the Greater Richmond Area. Currently, CEF of GR is active in 12 of our region's 26 counties through different ministries, including the Good News Club® (GNC®) held in elementary schools.

✦ How is CEF of GRVa funded?

A faith-based, 501(c)(3) organization, CEF of Greater Richmond relies solely on the gifts of God's people. CEF of GRVa receives no funds from the national or international CEF ministries. Our financial policy is to "ask God and tell His people" about ministry needs within our area.

✦ Can we really teach the Bible in public elementary schools?

Yes! See the 2001 Supreme Court case synopsis on page 10.

✦ How can CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia serve you and your church?

- By offering a three-way partnership between your church, your community, and CEF.
- By partnering with you to motivate, support, mentor, and encourage the people in your congregation to minister beyond the walls of your church.
- By opening channels of communication with county school boards, local school principals, community centers, and military bases.
- By offering strong curriculum and long proven training to equip you and your parishioners each the next generation.

✦ How can you help us continue on the mission of reaching the next generation?

- Join us in praying for the salvation of members of the next generation.
- Place CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia in your church's missions budget.
- Adopt a local public school to host and conduct a Good News Club.
- Invite CEF to be part of your missions conferences/events.
- Invite a CEF missionary to speak at your church.
- Bring awareness to your community by participating in CEF community events.
- Host a CEF community informational meeting or training session.
- Place CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia links (www.CEFrichmond.org) on your church website.
- Tell other pastors and Christians about CEF ministries.

Partnering with CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia:

- ✦ Provides a fun and impactful way to mobilize church members of all ages for missionary outreach opportunities in your community.
- ✦ Gives your church visibility in the community and among other churches.
- ✦ Builds trust and relationships with unchurched children and families.
- ✦ Establishes a safe haven for unchurched families—giving them somewhere to turn when needs arise or when they are looking for a church to attend.
- ✦ Helps your congregation maintain a vision for lost souls through verbal reports, sharing prayer needs and praises, and bulletin inserts regarding Club activities and testimonies.
- ✦ Trains and develops new volunteer workers not only for your Good News Club but for your church's children's ministry and mission teams.
- ✦ Increases the outreach of your children's ministry program.
- ✦ Provides contact with new families (of Good News Club participants), whom you can invite to special church activities.
- ✦ Facilitates the spiritual maturity and leadership growth of team members through their ministry involvement in neighborhoods and schools.
- ✦ Leads to church growth.
- ✦ Allows your church to be a blessing to children, their school(s), your community, and the nation!

Next Steps to Partnership with Child Evangelism Fellowship®

Next steps to hosting and conducting a Good News Club:

1. Meet with a Child Evangelism Fellowship representative for planning.
2. Pray as CEF introduces the Good News Club to the local Board of Education or Superintendent. If the school board has not already given equal access to the public school facility, a CEF representative will begin the process of opening the doors. The law approves equal access, but opening a school requires meetings, phone calls, and the presentation of legal documents. This is preliminary legal work that CEF does on your behalf—thereby creating solid working relationships within your school system. Such relationships are of great importance as you progress in your ministry.
3. Assemble an after-school Good News Club team. One passionate person in your church will take on this task. This passionate person—the GNC Team Leader — recruits a minimum of five to eight team members to lead the Good News Club. As the GNC grows, you may need to add more volunteers. To keep a GNC running smoothly, a ratio of one volunteer to seven children is best. Assembling a team must take place before the next step (meeting the principal).
4. CEF* schedules a meeting with your GNC Team Leader and the school principal. Our CEF Local Director or Ministry Coordinator will set up a meeting involving CEF, the GNC Team Leader, and the school principal. It will include discussion and logistical planning for conducting the GNC in the school. The meeting will be facilitated entirely by CEF but is a very important FIRST step for your church to establish a good working relationship with the principal and school.
5. Fulfill yearly training requirements. *This required training provides everything you need to host and conduct a GNC.* Before working in a GNC, all team volunteers must:
 - Complete an online (<https://www.ministryopportunities.org/Application.aspx?oid=31786>) volunteer application form
 - Confidential Screening Form
 - Background and Reference Check Authorization
 - Agree to and sign the:
 - Statement of Faith (CEFonline.com/statementoffaith)
 - Doctrinal Protection Policy (CEFonline.com/wca)
 - Child Protection Policy (CEFonline.com/policy)
 - Agree to use the provided CEF Press® curriculum.
6. CEF* staff will visit, mentor, and encourage your Club. A member(s) of the CEF staff will observe your GNC to encourage and help you minister more effectively, ensuring that the GNC program is conducted uniformly throughout the Greater Richmond area. It is important that volunteers use the methods they learned in their CEF training so that their ministry is effective in helping children.

Financial Commitment to a Good News Club

The Cost Involved in Partnering with CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia to Host a Good News Club

The yearly cost for an “everything-included” (see next page) partnership is $693.65. To include a drink and snack we’d suggest budgeting an average of $1.75 per child per week for the two 12 week sessions or a total of $2,100.00. So, the grand total to operate a Good News Club for 12 weeks in the fall and 12 weeks in the spring will come to $2,793.65. NOTE: This figure does not include the support for the missionaries on the Local Chapter staff.

We’d ask the church to consider additional support for our Chapter’s staff, all of whom are responsible for raising the funds to support their meet monthly commitments. The Holy Spirit will lead you when considering support for the ministry operations in the Greater Richmond area. As a guide we’d ask you to consider budgeting an annual support level of $2,000.00.

There are many ways to obtain these funds, but here are two popular options:

Option 1: Church Support

A church may choose to support the GNC collectively through several possible methods:

- Include the full amount $693.65 and ministry’s $2,000.00 operational funding in the church’s annual budget like any other evangelism/missions/strategic outreach program. In this case, many churches choose to pay the partnership fee in quarterly or monthly installments.
- Conduct fundraising events to underwrite the cost of partnering with CEF.
- Solicit a business or church member to be a corporate sponsor for the Club.

Option 2: Adopt-a-Club Program (Individual Support)

Our Adopt-a-Club program enables your people (i.e., volunteers on your GNC team and/or anyone else in your congregation willing and able to support the ministry) to personally underwrite the financial costs of a GNC.

Adopt-a-Club works like this: A small number of individuals from your congregation agree to support the ministry monthly for an entire school year. For example:

20 people give $11.22 per month for 12 months = $2,693.65(annual cost)

Don’t let cost stop you! Whether you choose one of the above options or develop your own plan, CEF will work with you and your church to help you fulfill the vision God gives you for reaching the next generation. Do not allow a lack of funds to prevent you from realizing that vision. If God wants you involved, He will meet your needs (Phil. 4:19).

Where do these funds go?

Of the $2,000.00 partnership cost, 10% goes toward starting Clubs and chapters all over the state, nation, and world! The remaining 90% covers the costs of assisting your church with hosting your Good News Club. (See next page for a detailed cost breakdown.)

Financial Commitment (Continued) to a Good News Club

The Cost Involved in Partnering with CEF of Greater Richmond to Host a Good News Club

When officially partnering with a host church, CEF:

1. Creates the bridge between your church and the school.
2. Provides the school with legal documents.
3. Provides required new team training (Quick Start Training) and background checks for the GNC team members.
4. Provides a $3 million liability insurance policy for all volunteers.
5. Provides a year's worth of GNC curriculum.
6. Provides opportunities for continuing training and educational support ("Super Seminars" and "Teacher Enrichment Seminars") on a regular basis.
7. Provides ongoing communication and support for the GNC team.

Logistics and Promotion of a Good News Club

Logistics

✦ What does an after-school Good News Club schedule look like?

The Club is fast-moving and usually operates for 1½ hours one day a week. Club days follow the school's calendar—meeting for approximately 24 weeks during the school year, typically September through April.

✦ What do Good News Club volunteers/teachers do?

Responsibilities for each GNC team position can be found on page 13 of this packet. These descriptions are basic. Additional positions may be needed as the Club grows.

✦ How do children sign up for a Good News Club?

ALL Good News Clubs must use the official, pre-prepared CEF Registration Form for participant signups (see sample on page 12). A CEF staff member will customize this official legal document for you after the meeting with the school principal (see step 4 on page 3); it may not be altered in any way.

Either the church or CEF is responsible for making copies of the blank registration forms on bright yellow paper. The distribution of the sign-up registration forms is based on the school's particular policies and procedures for all other after-school Clubs.

✦ What about liability?

Because child security is of utmost importance, all volunteers who serve in any capacity in GNCs are covered by a $3 million liability insurance policy. This policy is renewed yearly and reflects the growth in our volunteer base. Each school year, all teams and schools are provided with this policy, which is covered by the church/CEF financial partnership fee. This policy is the strongest one available and is possible because of the CEF national child protection policy.

Church Promotion

God works in so many wonderful ways at Good News Club! You can encourage the faith of your church by sharing through a variety of ways, such as:

- ✦ Newsletters
- ✦ DVDs or video presentations
- ✦ Brochures
- ✦ An information table in your church
- ✦ Weekly church bulletins
- ✦ Regular GNC presentations during your services
- ✦ Oral testimonies and prayer requests
- ✦ Year-end programs or banquets, that invite GNC kids and their parents to your church campus and provide opportunity for outreach and ministry!

School Promotion

It is important and easy to promote Good News Club at your school. The same policies apply to GNC as for any other after-school Club. For example:

- ✦ Some Clubs set up a table at an open house before the school year begins.
- ✦ Some Club leaders attend a parent meeting and briefly (two minutes) share information about the Good News Club. Set up a table with registration forms so parents can register their children.
- ✦ Some Clubs gain exposure at school and show support of the school by setting up a booth or game at the school's fall festival.
- ✦ All *GNC*s should be prepared to hand out registration forms and flyers at each weekly Club meeting! GNC kids are your BEST promotion!

Statement of Faith, Doctrinal Protection Policy, and Worker's Compliance Agreement of Child Evangelism Fellowship®

WE BELIEVE -

That "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God," by which we understand the whole book called THE BIBLE; that it is inerrant in the original writing and that its teaching and authority are absolute, supreme, and final. That the Holy Spirit guided the holy men of old in all that they wrote. 2 Timothy 3:16; Deuteronomy 4:2; 2 Peter 1:21

The Godhead eternally exists in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. These three are one God, having the same nature, attributes, and perfection. Romans 1:20; Matthew 28:19; Deuteronomy 4:35; John 17:5

In the personality and Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, begotten of the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, truly God and truly man. John 1:1, 14; 10:30; Matthew 1:20; Luke 1:30, 31; Philippians 2:5-7; 1 Timothy 3:16; Colossians 1:19

In the personality and Deity of the Holy Spirit, the source and power of all acceptable worship and service, the infallible interpreter of the infallible Word, who indwells every true believer, and is ever present to testify of Christ, seeking to occupy us with Him and not with ourselves or our experiences. John 15:26; Acts 5:3-4; 1:8; Romans 8:26-27; 1 Corinthians 2:12, 14; Romans 8:9; 1 Corinthians 3:16; 12:13; John 16:13-14

That man was created in the image of God, after His likeness, as stated in the Word of God, but the whole human race fell in the fall of the first Adam. Not only was his moral nature grievously injured by the fall but he totally lost all spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and subject to the power of the devil. "The carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then, they that are in the flesh cannot please God" (Romans 8:7,8). Therefore, he cannot see nor enter the kingdom of God until he is born again by the Holy Spirit. That no degree of reformation however great, no attainment in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no humanitarian and philanthropic schemes and societies however useful, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward Heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word is absolutely essential to salvation. Genesis 1:26-27; Romans 5:12; Ephesians 2:1-3; John 3:3, 6, 7; Titus 3:5

That Jesus Christ became the sinner's substitute before God and died as a propitiatory sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. That He was made a curse for the sinner, dying for his sins according to the Scriptures; that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church can add in the very least to the value of the precious blood or to the merit of that finished work wrought for us by Him, who tasted death for every man. 1 John 2:2; Hebrews 2:9; Galatians 3:13; Romans 3:25; 4:4-5; 5:8; Colossians 1:13-14, 20-21

In the resurrection of the crucified body of Jesus Christ; that His body was raised from the dead according to the Scriptures, and that He ascended into Heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God as the believer's high priest and advocate. Luke 24:39; Acts 1:10-11; Ephesians 4:10; Hebrews 1:3; 1 John 2:1

That Christ in the fullness of the blessings He has secured by His death and resurrection is received by faith alone and that the moment we trust in Him as our Savior we pass out of death into everlasting life, justified from all things, accepted before the Father according to the measure of His acceptance, loved as He is loved and made one with Him. At the time of acceptance of Christ as Savior, He comes to dwell within the believer and to live out His life of holiness and power through him. Hebrews 9:15; John 5:24; Romans 3:28; 4:3,23-25; Ephesians 1:3; John 17:23; Galatians 2:20; 4:6-7; 5:16; Acts 1:8

That the Church is composed of all those who truly believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior. It is the body and bride of Christ. That every believer, whether Jew or Gentile, is baptized into the body of Christ by the Holy Spirit and having thus become members of one another we are responsible to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian prejudices and denominational bigotry and loving one another with a pure heart fervently. Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 1 Corinthians 12:22-27; 1:10-13; Romans 12:4-5; Ephesians 4:3-6; 5:32; Philippians 2:1-5; Galatians 5:13-15

That all believers in our Lord Jesus Christ are called into a life of separation from worldly and sinful practices and should abstain from such amusements and habits as will cause others to stumble or bring reproach upon the cross of Christ. Believers are created in Christ Jesus unto good works. "As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith" (Galatians 6:10). 1 John 2:15-16; Romans 13:14; 14:13; 1 Corinthians 10:31; Ephesians 2:10

In the evangelization of the world, that the supreme mission of the people of God in this age is to preach the Gospel to every creature. That special emphasis should be placed upon the evangelization of children. Mark 16:15; 2 Corinthians 5:18-19; Matthew 18:14

In the personal return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, that the coming again of Jesus Christ is the "blessed hope" set before us, for which we should be constantly looking. "Our citizenship is in Heaven from whence we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" (Philippians 3:20). Acts 1:11; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; John 14:1-3; Titus 2:13; Philippians 3:20-21

That the souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation do at death immediately pass into His presence, and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the body at His coming, when soul and body reunited shall be with Him forever in glory. Luke 23:43; 2 Corinthians 5:8; Luke 16:22,25 Philippians 1:23; 1 Thessalonians 4:15-18

That the souls of the lost remain after death in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne, when soul and body reunited at the resurrection shall be cast "into the lake of fire" which is "the second death," to be "punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power" (2 Thessalonians 1:8-9). Luke 16:22-23,27-28; Hebrews 9:27; Revelation 20:5,11-15; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9

In the reality and personality of Satan, “that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world” (Revelation 12:9). Ephesians 6:11-12; 1 Peter 5:8; Revelation 20:10

Worker’s Compliance Agreement
Child Evangelism Fellowship

Doctrinal Protection Policy - Adopted by CEF International Board of Trustees, May 6, 2002

Child Evangelism Fellowship® continues in its commitment to its Statement of Faith, which embodies the non-negotiable and historic beliefs of evangelical Christians.

Within the community of evangelical believers various distinctives exist which do not prevent our fellowship in the Lord and our effectiveness as child evangelists.

We therefore resolve that CEF® workers are qualified by their unreserved commitment to CEF’s Statement of Faith and their further commitment in all CEF activities to refrain from teaching or otherwise advocating doctrinal distinctives either contrary to or in addition to the Statement of Faith.

Recognizing the spiritual need of boys and girls in our community and around the world, I would like to assist in the work of Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF).

I understand that CEF is without specific denominational affiliation and have read the Statement of Faith and CEF Doctrinal Protection Policy. In becoming a coworker with CEF, and in order to protect the ministry, I agree not to propagate or practice in CEF ministries any distinctive or controversial doctrines, methods and practices that would go beyond the CEF Statement of Faith and the approved CEF curriculum. These would include but not be limited to such things as modes of baptism, speaking in tongues, interpretation of Scripture by experience, healing on demand, etc. I understand that anyone who does not adhere to this agreement cannot serve with CEF as paid staff or volunteer.

In teaching Bible lessons in core CEF programs I will use exclusively materials approved by CEF.

In offering my services I trust the Lord to make me a faithful servant, and should problems arise between CEF and me that cannot be fully reconciled, I will quietly withdraw to preserve the harmony essential to having an effective Christian witness.

By signing below, I indicate:

- My agreement with the Statement of Faith, and that
- I will abide by the above Worker’s Compliance Agreement, and that
- I will abide by the policies of CEF as long as I am actively involved. (applicable in the USA):
- I have reviewed the Protecting Today’s Child presentation (www.CEFonline.com/childprotection) in the last 12 months.
- If you have a question about a specific policy or to see a complete copy of all policies, contact your Local Director or Ministry Coordinator (see contact information on p 17).

Supreme Court Decision and Legal Matters Related to CEF Good News Clubs

Good News Club v. Milford Central School

June 11, 2001

Equal Access: A Brief Synopsis

What was the Court's holding?

Milford Central School violated the rights of the Good News Club under the Free Speech Clause of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Milford would not have violated the First Amendment's Establishment Clause (often referred to as "separation of church and state") if it had allowed the Club to meet.

What was the Court's reasoning underlying its Free Speech Clause determination?

It was already well settled that the Free Speech Clause forbids government from treating speech differently based on its viewpoint. The Court held that Milford violated this rule. The Court concluded that the Scouts were focused on morals and character from a secular perspective. The Court concluded that the Club was addressing the same subject matter (morals and character), albeit from a religious perspective.

What was the Court's reasoning underlying its Establishment Clause determination?

First, equal treatment of religious speakers is not endorsement of religion. Neutrality is neutrality, not favoritism. Second, parents get to decide whether their kids attend Club meetings. To the extent children are confused about the school district's connection with the Club, that confusion is not constitutionally significant, because kids are not free to act on that confusion. Third, the concern about children's potential misperceptions cannot be considered in a vacuum. Although some might draw an incorrect inference (favoritism) from equal treatment, the Court must consider the impact of a policy that discriminates and excludes the club. Kids would likely perceive a message of government hostility to religion. It is unlikely that they would understand that the discrimination is the product of nuanced and subtle constitutional law doctrines; instead they will infer hostility. Also, an actual violation of constitutional rights cannot be justified by invoking speculative fears that some will get the wrong idea.

Good News Club: Knowing Your Rights

CEF and its Good News Club ministry is in an exceptional position to gain access to public schools for meeting purposes. In the seminal case Good News Club v. Milford Central Sch. (533 U.S. 98 [2001]), the Supreme Court of the United States specifically decided that Bible Clubs such as Good News Clubs must be given the same access to school facilities accorded to any other non-school-related outside group. Therefore, the Court has made clear that a school may not deny a Good News Club permission to use its facilities because it is a religious club.

If the school denies the use of the school facilities to the Good News Club when other outside groups are allowed access to the school facilities, the school is probably engaging in unconstitutional viewpoint discrimination. In addition to the aforementioned case, reference Lamb's Chapel v. Center Moriches Union Free Sch. Dist. (508 U.S. 385 [1993]).

If the school denies the use of its facilities, take these steps:

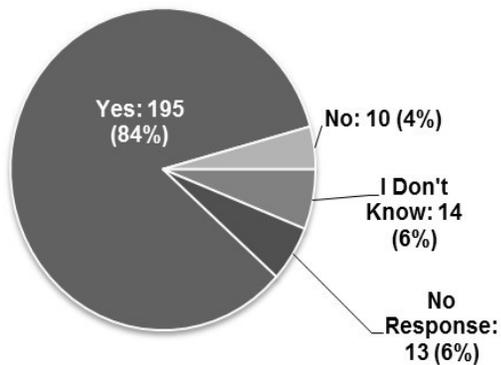

1. Obtain the reason for denial at the time you are denied use of the school or as soon thereafter as possible; and
2. Contact CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia at (804) 814-5508. If necessary, we will confer with Liberty Counsel about your situation and receive advice about the appropriate next steps.*

*It is impossible to predict all of the scenarios that may occur regarding Good News Club meetings in a public school. Therefore, it is essential that you notify us of any possible problems so that we may assist you in your mission. Usually, we can help you resolve these issues with a simple phone call.

Principals Speak Out about Good News Clubs

These data and quotes are from a voluntary survey administered by CEF. The survey was taken by 232 public elementary school principals (representing 28 states) whose schools host a Good News Club.

To your knowledge, has the Good News Club been a positive experience in the school?

Quotes from responses to the question, “What aspects of the Good News Club program have you appreciated?”

“It allows the students and families of my school to have an extended learning opportunity connecting home/school/ church. It allows students at the school to enhance their personal relationships with one another through the Good News Club activities. It fosters a positive connection between [the] school character program and Good News Club traits.”

“Reading practice, mentoring, positive role models.”

“The students who are in the GNC rarely receive discipline referrals to the office. Undoubtedly, the Club has been a successful part in our curbing bullying and classroom disrespect from children.”

“Students love the program. Parents are excited to have the program in our school. The Good News Club works with us to promote good choices among children.”

 CEF® does not provide transportation to the Good News Club location. ***
 Parents must arrange transportation to the GNC location and must pick up each child promptly at GNC end time. Our policies do not allow GNC workers to remain after club. If your child is not picked up immediately after club three times throughout the school year, he/she will not be allowed to continue attending. Thank you for understanding.

The United States Constitution requires schools to respect the right of all external organizations to distribute flyers to students at school if the school permits any such organization to distribute flyers. Accordingly, the school cannot discriminate among groups wishing to distribute flyers at school and does not endorse the content of any flyer distributed at school. The school encourages parents to assist their children in making choices appropriate for them.

This is not an activity of the school or the school district.

Think About It

To preserve our Judeo-Christian heritage, we must reach the next generation with the life-changing Gospel of Jesus Christ!

George Barna of The Barna Group (a research organization focused on the intersection of faith and culture) reports that children's ministries nationwide are the lowest funded of any church ministry.

How are you reaching children and the next generation in and beyond your local church? Are your people passionate about seeing the unchurched come to know the great love of Jesus?

CEF of Greater Richmond, Virginia stands committed and ready to help you and your congregation to develop a plan to reach out to the approximately 80% of unchurched children and their families in your community. With top-notch training (some for college credit) and partnerships, CEF can equip you to minister more effectively to children in your own church, public schools, community, military bases, and juvenile detention centers.

A hundred years from now, you and I will not be here. Are we passing the torch to the next generation? Partner with CEF of Greater Richmond Virginia to reach children now. It will be the best investment you can make in the future!

See the next page for contact information so you can begin your partnership today.

When you reach children, you never know who they will become — or who they will go on to influence!

Have you ever heard of Edward Kimball? He was a Sunday school teacher who lived many years ago and taught at Mt. Vernon Congregational Church in Boston, Massachusetts. One of his Sunday school students was D.L. Moody. Kimball went to Holton's Shoe Store, young Moody's place of employment, and led him to Christ. Moody, of course, went on to become one of history's great evangelists.

Preaching in England, Moody reached a businessman named F.B. Meyer. Meyer became a preacher and writer of Christian materials.

A Gospel tract written by Meyer was read by a young man named Wilbur Chapman. Chapman received Christ and later went into the ministry and conducted revivals.

A young baseball player came to one of Chapman's meetings and went forward to receive Christ. His name was Billy Sunday.

Sunday preached revivals all over the country. At one of his meetings a young Jewish boy heard the message and was saved. His name was Mordecai Ham.

As Ham preached a revival in western North Carolina, a young boy came forward to receive Christ. His name was Billy Graham, one of the greatest evangelists of all time.
